MEMORANDUM FOR ALL EMPLOYEES

SUBJECT: Inspector General Fact-Finding Investigation

1. Recently, the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations received testimony indicating that CIA has maintained and/or furnished to certain Panamanian officials, information on Members of Congress and their staffs. This allegation is being investigated by the Agency elements most directly concerned and, to date, no evidence has been found that provides any substance to it. However, to ensure that our review is complete, the Inspector General has initiated a fact-finding investigation to determine whether or not there are any instances of improper recording or passing of information on Members of Congress or their staffs anywhere in the Agency. The Inspector General will supervise and coordinate the fact-finding efforts and direct or initiate any additional steps he deems appropriate. The directorate focal points for this investigation are:
